[illegible]

The loss of systematically important operations could have a serious knock-on effect on the UK economy and economies around the world.

Prof Lucie Green, [illegible]
Richard Deighton, [illegible]
Sarah Chaytor, [illegible]

Summary of space weather impacts

Space weather events	Time to affect Earth	Potential impact
Co o al mass ejectio s [illegible]	12 [illegible]	[illegible]
Sola fla es [illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Sola e e getic pa ticles [illegible]	30 [illegible]	[illegible]

3. Education and awareness

[illegible] internal risk teams and business continuity planners. [illegible]

4. Vendor risk assessments

[illegible] vendor's exposure to space weather [illegible]

5. Space weather response plans

[illegible] determine 'trigger' events to assist them in space weather planning, [illegible] impact of space weather on multiple systems, [illegible]

Coordinated market-wide testing [illegible]

Background

[illegible] 2011 [illegible] 2012. [illegible]

[illegible] Building Space Weather Resilience in the Finance Sector, [illegible]

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR FURTHER RESEARCH

Business: [illegible]

Business and academia: [illegible]

The Met Office: [illegible]

UCL Public Policy

UCL INSIGHTS: RESEARCH BRIEFING

UCL Public Policy connects researchers with policy professionals, to inform policy with evidence.

The UCL Insights: Research Briefings series presents summaries of UCL research and briefings on topical public policy issues.

See more at www.ucl.ac.uk/public-policy